NEWS AND NOTES

A Summary of Important Events.

QUEEN MARY of Bavaria, mother of the names Minneapolis, Detroit and King Otto, died, on the 16th, from dropsy and cancer of the liver.

THE striking stone masons of Pittsburgh, Pa., returned to work, on the 16th, at the old wages, pending arbitration. The Municipal Council of Berlin voted 150,000 marks for the expenses of entertaining King Humbert during his visit to

THE Connecticut House, on the 14th, by a vote of 90 to 44, defeated the amendment to strike the word "male" out of the State Constitution.

ment Miss Sybil Sanderson, the American prima donus, upon her success in Massenet's new opera.

THE United States steamship Dispatch, with the President and party on board, returned to Washington from a trip to Fort Monroe on the 13th.

THE British Rouse of Commons, on the 14th, rejected, by 284 to 31, a motion to disestablish the Welsh church. Mr. Gladstone was not present.

THE largest oil well in Ohio was struck at North Baltimore on the 17th. It filled s 1,800-barrel tank in an hour. Land in the town is held at enormous prices.

FRANCIS BARTON, the wealthy Frenchman who disappeared from his hotel in New York City, and for whom the police were looking, was found safe and well in Philadelphia on the 17th.

An enormous land-slide occurred in the region of the Spiessbach, Switzerland, on the 14th, destroying several villages, large tracts of woods, etc., and killing a large number of cattle, DESPATCHES from various portions o North Dakota state that snow fell in considerable quantities, on the 14th, the fall varying from two to ten inches, doing a great deal of good to growing grain.

THE Senate committee on trade relations with Canada arrived at Los Angeles, Cal., on the 14th. Senator Hale's right leg was badly injured in a collision of trains near San Jose on the 13th. SHANGHAI advices are that the claims for damages growing out of the Chee-Foo riots have been settled. The English and American flags have been again holsted and the Chinese troops have sa-

Tag annual convention of the Order af Railroad Conductors opened at Denver, Col., on the 14th, the delegates representing all the leading raffroads of the counfry, with a larger attendance than at any previous convention.

HUNDHEDS of the striking miners at Rssen, Germany, have, at their own request, been sworu in as special police in order to keep their fellow-workmen from rioting and thus spoiling their hopes of the mine-awners' concession.

Among the passengers on the steamship City of Paris, which sailed from New York for Liverpool, on the 15th, were Robert T. Lincoln, the new United States Minister to the Court of St. James, his wife, two daughters and son.

Two THOUSAND men employed at the National Tube Works at McKeesport. Pa., struck, on the 16th, for a ten per cent. advance in wages. About six thousand more of the company's employes threaten to join the strikers. JUDGE MATTHEWS, who succeeds Judge Durham as First Comptroler of the Treasury, and Mr. Huston, who succeeds Mr. Hyatt as Treasurer of the United States, entered upon the discharge of their respective duties on the 13th. ATTORNEY-GENERAL MILLER has authorized the United States marshal of Arizona to offer a reward of $500 each for Wham near Fort Grant on the 11th. CHIEF ENGINEER L. HARRIS, who was on the Naval Examining Board to test the cruiser Charleston, but who became ill on the voyage from San Francisco to Santa Barbara, and was incapacitated for duty, died on the night of the 15th.

THE conductors employed by the tramway companies of Vienna, whose drivers recently enforced their demands by a general strike, are threatening to take similar action unless their pay is increased and their hours shortened.

It is stated that the police raids on the Adelphi and Field clabs of London were prompted by the father of one and the | whalebone. mother of another of the persons arrested, with a view to enabling the latter to

THE principal publishing houses of London are apparently vicing with each other in their eagerness to obtain the right of publishing the history of Lord Lousdale's Arctic adventures. Several houses cabled him magnificent offers for the prospective book. It is hinted that Attorney-General W.

H. H. Milier will probably be appointed Justice of the Supreme Court, vice Matthews, deceased, Secretary Noble to become Attorney-General and Assistant Postmaster-General Clarkson to become Secretary of the Interior. Isbiana's old State House at Indianapolis is to be sold under the hammer. It has been officially appraised, and its value fixed at $50,000. Fifteen years ago the building cost the State that sum for repairs and the real estate on which is stands is valued at $33,750. WORKMEN excavating beneath where an old house had just been town down in the southern part of the city of Columbus, O. on the 17th, discovered a quantity of gold and silver coin. A miserly old woman formerly owned the place. It is thought at least $10,000 were dug up. REV. JOHN E. RUSSELL, professor of biblical theology at Yale, has resigned, on account, it is supposed, of a difference of epinion in regard to the "Andover controversy," the professor siding with the Andover professors. The resignation causes surprise and general regret. PUBLIC PRINTER PALMER took charge of the great Government printing office on the 13th Mr. Benedict, his predecessor, quietly bade many of the employes d-bye, and took his leave, while Mr. Palmer gave up most of the day to shak- sling $2,300 of United States funds in heart, killing him instantly. His only blooming in all the low waying way ing hands with his employes. HEYWOOD PAUL, a young millionaire of Philadelphia, who recently graduated at Harvard, and who became insane while arranging for his marriage to a young lady of Boston, and for whose apprehension $1,000 reward had been offered, was found drowned at Mt. Holly, N. J., on the 15th.

general order calling the attention of the | the fact of suicide will not invalidate it. The Episcopal Council of the Diocese of were heart-rending. Ladies from every eighty-two, an eccentric character, who breakfast. He ate it and is now getting William Fooye, a scaman of the wrecked sition to amend the church canons so as searching for husbands or brothers. Trenton, who has several times risked his to provide for separate parishes for collife in the discharge of perilous duties.

in anticipation of a favorable result of in anticipation of a favorable result of the pending negotiations for accession means an advance of ten to the pending negotiations for accession by the United States of a part of the Sfour the United States of the Neely gang stituted his last meal. Clark was an author of standard cook-books, died at the United States of a part of the Sfour the United States of the Neely gang state of the

PERSONAL AND GENERAL Ar a meeting of the heads of the Navy Department, on the 14th, the subject of names for the proposed new naval ves-sels was discussed at some length, but Cleveland will not be used. A WEALTHY Spaniard named Buenos, has donated to his government $100,000 for submarine boat experiments.

THE English syndicate of buyers of American brewerles has bought the ex-tensive brewerr of George Ringler & Co., on East Ninety-second street, New York. It is one of the oldest and best known in hat city. The sum, received for the transfer was $9,500,000 in cash.

THE historical piece of property at Elecon, N. J., known as the "Garfield Cottage," has been bought for Mrs. McIvers Gosling, sister of Sir Bach Cunard, of steamship fame, for $25,000. The Hotel Elberon and all its furniture was also ought for Mrs. Gosling for $30,000, subect to a $50,000 mortgage covering both the hotel and cottage. The mortgage is

THE speech of the Emperor of Germany o the committee representing the strikng miners of Westphalia, on the 14th, wherein he avowed his intention of shooting down Socialists and disorderly strikers without remorse in the event of their ersistent agitation and fomentation of isturbances, has aroused general critiism, not by any means confined to Sodalistic circles, both in Germany and England.

THE bill authorizing the construction of elevated roads in Boston was killed in he Massachusetts Senate on the 15th. THE committee of the Wesphalian strikers has caused the posting of plaeards throughout the districts affected by the strike urging the maintenance of

THE sub-committee of the Samoan conference has rendered a decision regarding the municipal government of Apia. A ouncil composed of one member from each of the powers engaged in the conference and three natives will form the unicipal body. LORD LONSDALE arrived in New York City, on the 15th, from Montreal. He was accompanied only by a servant, but was subsequently joined by his wife at the

THE Connecticut House of Representaves, on the 14th, voted down a resoluion directing the State Comptroler, beore the opening of each Legislative sesion, to obtain free passes from railroads and deliver them to the members of the THE New York Assembly, on the 15th

a vote of 80 to 23, defeated the so-WAR upon the Jute-Bagging Trust was leclared at a convention of farmers from a majority of the Southern States, which was held at Birmingham, Ala., on the MB. WILLIAM HARDING, for twenty years publisher of the Philadelphia Inuirer, died in that city on the 15th, THE Woman's Municipal Suffrage bill assed the lower house of the Michigan egislature on the 15th. SEVERAL members of the graduating lass of the Yale Theological school have already left for Colorado to engage in Indian mission work during the summer. In declining the ofter of a New York newspaper syndicate of $25,000 for twenty-five articles on subjects of current inerest, Mr. Gladstone says: "At my age, he stock of brain power does not wax, but wanes. And public calls upon my ime leave me only a fluctuating residue to dispose of. All idea of a series of offorts is, therefore, I have finally decided sevond my power to embrace." In a collision on the Delaware river a Philadelphia between two ferry boats, on he 15th, half a dozen people, mostly resdents of Camden, N. J., were injured, but none seriously.

Tun British ship Altmore, from Sydney V. S. W., April 8, for San Francisco, was crecked on the Island of Neirai, in the South Pacific. The first officer was drowned. The captain and a portion of the crew were landed at Levyka, but a the arrest and conviction of the parties boat containing the remainder of the who attacked and robbed Paymaster grew and some passengers is missing.

arew and some passengers is missing. JOHN T. ABBOTT, United States Miniser to the Republic of Colombia, and William L. Scraggs, Minister to Venetuela, sailed from New York for their respective posts on the 16th.

HENRY O'BRIEN, treasurer of the Coumbus (Ind.) branch of the Catholic Knights of America, is nffssing, together with all the cash of the order, some five nundred dollars.

THE ship Horace arrived at New Bedord, Mass., on the 16th, from a whaling royage of forty-three months on the Chili ground, bringing home 1,600 barrels f sperm oil. During the voyage she sent home 1.160 barrels of sperm oil, 124 barrels of whale oil and 2,200 pounds of

CORONER LEVY, of New York, on the 16th, ordered the funeral of the mindescape the payment of their gambling reader Bishop postponed until an official inquiry could be made as to whether death had occurred before the autopsy Ir is stated on the continent that as

English physician has found General

Soulanger to be suffering from diabetes n and advanced stage, and has ordered im to Vichy or Carlsbad. On the 16th the Massachusetts Senate, by a vote of 16 to 12, passed to be encrossed the bill granting license suffrage

THE Shah of Persia arrived at the palace of Tiffis, Russia, on the 15th. He was met by the city authorities, and the city was illuminated.

SEVENTEEN-YEAR locusts have made heir appearance in Middle Tennessee, and grave fears are entertained for the safety of vegetation. H. J. Cook was, on the 16th, arrested in Savings Bank, in Mercer County, Pa., of present. $2,000 recently. He confessed, and implicated others in the robbery. QUEEN MARIE of Bayaria is dving o ropsy and cancer of the liver. On the 16th the Emperor of Germany orders conferred upon him by the Sultan and gave a state banquet in their honor. MR. PATRICK O'BRIES, Nationalist Member of Parliament for North Mon aghan, Ireland, has begun libel suits against the London Times, the Liverpool Protestant. Md., on the 16th, charged with embez-

at Pittsburgh, Pa-, recently joined the union, and, on the 18th, they struck for union wages. The mill has been non-union

Capt. John Parham is thought to be had been suspended until more information was short to death for eighteen months.

had an insurance of $5,000 on his life in what is known as Fusionists. Thus three the English and Scottish Law Life office, of the best men in the county were seen A Miserly Main Hermit Found Dead to starve himself to death, but changed his On the 11th Secretary Tracy issued a and as it has been running over five years, lying murdered upon the street at the same ited acts of heroism performed by Virginia, on the loth, considered a propo- portion of town rushed through the streets has lived as a hermit in a miserable but well.

It is stated that the Turks are massareing Christians on the frontier of Mon-Minnesota's Drunkards' law has gone into effect. It provides that whoever becomes intoxicated by voluntarily drinkno conclusion was reached, except that ing intoxicating liquors shall be deemed guilty of the crime of drunkenness, and upon conviction thereof shall be puntshed by fine and imprisonment. -

> Factory, at Manzanillo, Cuba, was burned on the 17th, loss, $400,000. THE British House of Commons, on the 17th, rejected Mr. Labouchere's motion to abolish hereditary sittings in the House of Lords. THE Pope became suddenly indisposed on the 17th.

THE Terra Central Sugar Grinding

An Anarchist Republican conspiracy ports to South America. THE reports of the committee of the Sa-on the 17th. The latter report was approved with the exception of a few details which were left over for discussion at the next meeting of the conference. THE Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad Company's depot warehouse at Norfolk, Va., was burned, on the 17th. The loss on the building and freight is estimated at $100, -000. The building, a wooden structure, was nine hundred feet long. The origin nation and dressed the wound, which, of the fire is unknown.

The late Duchess of Cambridge left an estate valued at about £220,000. Most of her fortune was devised to the children of her daughter, the Duchess of Teck. On the 16th Stewart Brothers' Packinguse, at Council Bluffs, Ia., was burned, with a quantity of cured meats. Loss, $100,000; insurance, $93,400. THE manufacturing company occupying three large woolen mills at Kensingn avenue and Huntington street, Philadelphia, indefinitely suspended on the 17th. The concern employed about three hundred men. Competition in trade and low prices were the causes. The liabiliies will reach nearly $350,000; assets, A DISPATCH from Breslau, Germany, of the 17th, says that a conflict occurred between the military and the strikers near there. The troops fired upon the strikers, killing a number of them. JUDGE JOHN L. MILBURN, of the St. Mary's County Orphans' Court at Leonardtown, Md., was struck by lightning George Howery, a wealthy farmer of Shelby County, Ind., was arrested, on the 16th, and taken to Rushville on a warrant charging him with being one of two men who passed over $300 in counterfeit fives and tens in the latter city. THE worst hail-storm that ever visited Central and Northern Iowa was experienced on the 16th, lasting but two or three minutes. Many of the stones were larger than bens' eggs. They cut the eaves and small limbs from trees, damaged vegetation, and caused great loss to greenhouses and windows. A CONFERENCE of Austrian and Hungarian sugar merchants was held at Trieste on the 17th. Resolutions were draw from the London sugar bounties POSTMASTER-GENERAL WANAMAKER Bd. ressed over three thousand of his Philaolphin-employes on the evening of the 17th. He talked to them for over half an hour, receiving frequent outbursts of apimmense establishment among its em-

The delegates to the Presbyterian General Assembly in New York City were tendered a reception, on the night of the 16th, at the Metropolitan Opera House by the Presbyterian Union of that city. There was muste, luncheon and speaking.

others delivered addresses. Central railroad extension. Three men were shot and badly wounded; two were eaten, bruised by stones, etc. of Tully, Ireland, testified that the Moon- time.

lighters of that place were opposed to the National League. NELSON COLBERT (colored), who murdered Philip Wentzel, superintendent of the Columbia street-car stables in Wash. ington, in October last, was hanged as the District jail on 17th.

BLOODY BACE RIOT

At Forrest Chy, Ark.-Three White Men and One Negro Killed.

FORREST CITY, Ark., May 18 .- Our uiet city was horrified at 2:10 o'clock his afternoon by the most terrible traghigh over the school election, and A. M. Neely and G. W. Ingram (both colored) advocating the ousting of the whites from the control of school affairs. Neely has been a disturbing element in the politics of this county for some time, having alost absolute control of the negroes. Today a large crowd assembled at the junction of Washington and Front streets, in of the trouble cannot, in consequence of London, Ont., for robbing the Sortersville | the terrible excitement, be ascertained at | Paymaster Wham. He answers the de-

Neely had a fight with a white man, and was knocked down by a by-stander. He then ran to Capt. John Parham for protececeived the Turkish Mission bearing manded peace. Thomas H. Parham, son ward Thomas, and when the fight was ployed as deputy, with a pistol in his Thomas, hand. He saw the Marshal and his father in close proximity to each other, talking Courier and Mr. Thomas Russell, Unionst Member of Parliament, for stating the Internal Revenue division at Nor- time, falling to the sidewalk. Sheriff D. opening of Oklahoma to settlement, had verely that she will likely die. words were: "I am a dead man." It is moval was made yesterday.

wounded, but refuses to allow the wound tion concerning the charges against him while cloping with a young white girl. It is stated that the informer Pigott to be examined. Wilson and Parham are could be procured. time. The cries of the afflicted families

FORREST CITY, ARK., May 19 .- A. M. THE National Tube Works, at McKees- Neely, the negro who started the whole his shanty which he occupied in common Washington Fire Company No. 20, on BECHETAUY NOBLE has directed that a port, Pa., having granted the demand of trouble, and who took refoge in the Advo-BECRETALY North and thorough investigation be transfer and many served as a pillow for his manufactured to ten bead. Under his bed were the careasses years' hard labor in the State penitenprompt and thorough investigation be made of the reports that settlers are unlawfully entering the Sioux Reservation in anticipation of a favorable result of anticipation of a favorable result of the new man an advance of ten to was thought that others of the Neely gang stituted his last tens to shoot means an advance of stilled at author of standard cook-books, died at

SOUTHERN GLEANINGS,

A Worthless Vagabond Kills an Amlable and Industrious Wife While at Her Duties as a School Teacher in Wash. lugton-He Saves Further Trouble by Killing Himself.

SHOCKING TRAGEDY.

WASHINGTON, May 18 .- Mrs. Sarah E. Allen, a school teacher in the Jefferson school building in South Washington, was shot and killed by her hasband. Oswald C. Allen, about three o'clock yesterday afternoon. Allen then turned his pistol and killed himself. There had been some difficulty between the pair, and they have not lived together for some time. The tragedy occurred in the school uilding. Allen hired a cab on Pennsylvania avenue and told the driver to take nim to the Jefferson building. Upon ariving there he alighted and told s been discovered at Succia in Valencia, the driver to wait until he wanted Spain, among the peasants. The plot was him. Then he walked up the stone to seize the town, on the 17th, and sack the houses of the wealthy. The police and soldiers arrested a number of the where his wife was engaged as teacher. conspirators. Firearms were found in He showed himself to her and beckoned their possession and many also had pass- her to the door. She came toward him, As she reached the threshold of the cleakroom he drew a pistol and shot her in the conference on the questions of left temple. Then, turning the pistol, he land tenure and the government of the shot himself through the right temple, islands were presented to the full body Both fell to the floor of the cloak-room The children in the school-room, who had witnessed the frightful scene, rushed from the room in a panic and spread the alarm. Lieutenant Vernon and two policemen soon arrived on the scene. Th woman was found to be still alive. She was removed to the school-room, and

> however, was pronounced fatal. The stairway was thronged with the frightened teachers and children, while outside an immense throng blocked the sidewalk. In the confusion, some one had turned in an alarm of fire, and the gathering crowd was augmented when the engines arrived. The remains of Allen were taken away to the morgue, out Mrs. Allen was left on a couch temorarily prepared in one corner of the m. A short time before she and been cheerily talking to the pupils. She died at a quarter after six o'clock.

> Drs. Bowman, Cook, Thompson and

Leach, who were called, made an exami-

Mrs. Allen was about forty-two years old, and had been a teacher for many years. She was in charge of a third-grade school, composed of little girls. She was the daughter of R. W. Johnson, an old and well-known citizen of Washngton. Her parents reside in this city. Allen never had any trade, but his father, Oswell S. Allen, is a well-known printer in this city. His family came from Charlottesville, Va., about fourteen years ago. Miss Johnson was warnedgainst Allen before she married him thirteen years ago. He ill-treated her during their early married life, and she was obliged to leave him. For some time she has been living with her parents. great deal of late. He was a worthless

vagabond. TIME FOR A HALT.

A Party of Proteges of the Prisoner's Ald Society of London Detained at Castle Garden-Such Immigrants Are Not Wanted.

NEW YORK, May 18 .- A case of "Imported contract labor" came before Collector Erhardt yesterday for his decision. adopted urging the government to with- | Ten emigrants who arrived Thursday night from Rotterdam on the steamer Obdam had in their possession printed ocuments indicating that each man had come here at the instigation of the Pris- | declares will navigate the air with perfect oner's Aid Society of London, with the safety. Mr. Bailey is confident he has understanding that he was to place his discovered the great secret of srial naviservices at the disposal of Samuel Neil, a gation. plause. The occasion was the second an- so-called "emigrant agent" at Seguin, nual distribution of the profits of the Tex. The men had agreed by a previousy-executed contract to undertake whatver labor Nell placed them at. The immigrants are all able-bodied Englishtheir possession. The whole party is de-

Ernst Lewis, nineteen years old, awore that his fare had been paid by his guard-Governor Beaver of Pennsylvania and | ian, Rev. H. W. Hawkins, of London; that he had been in prison charged with A senious fight occurred near Beverly, attempting suicide. When released he little German girls clad in white, while a W. Va., on the 17th, among about forty was turned over to the Prisoner's Aid German band played a German choral. Italian laborers on the West Virginia Society, which organization was instruhad a railroad ticket for Texas, but had severely stabbed, and others were cut, sold it. The Castle Garden authorities THE Parnell Commission resumed its been sending emigrants to Nell in Texas | visited Princeton, with total loss of $150, ittings on the 17th. Father O'Donovau, at the rate of one or two a week for some | 000, and not more than $90,000 insurance.

> ANOTHER NATURAL WONDER. A Spirits-of-Turpentine-Bearing Discovered in Georgia,

SAVANNAH, Ga., May 18 .- A special to he Times from Donaldson, Ga., says Laurens County is intensely excited over the discovery of spirits of turpentine, Gas has been observed coming from the well ever since it was dug two years ago. More than a month ago the water became so impregnated with turpentine that it ould not be used for drinking purposes. A few days ago a bucket of colored turpentine was hauled out. An investigation was made, and fourteen barrels were drawn off. In a few hours the spirits in the death of three good citizens. For of it reached Sayannah yesterday mornseveral days past excitement has been ing and experts pronounced it the pure article. It is not believed that the well has been "salted," and the mystery is so the day at the Board of Trade here, and | several States. little dealing in turpentine will be done until further results are obtained from the well. On the Trail of the Robbers. Tucson, Ariz., May 17 .- Advices from Fort Thomas say that Cyclone Bill, who the vicinity of the pofls. The exact origin | was arrested at Clifton yesterday, is uncription of the lame man. He can not explain his whereabouts during several hours previous to and after the robbery. Four others of the gang are known and will probably be arrested to-day. A woman passed Major Wham on horseback tion. Marshal Folbre interfered and com- half an hour before the attack, going toof John Parham, heard the disturbance over she was seen near by. She saw the and came running down estairs from the robbers, recognized six of them, all of County Clerk's office, where he was em- whom are well known in the vicinity of WASHINGTON, May 18.—Richard L. THE employes of the Solar Iron Works supposed a ball from Neely's pistol killed United Press general manier said united was spent there.

Ris Hot.

Saco, Me., May 18.-Joshua Clark, aged sent him in a bowl of soup and a nice the pending he was a form of the Sfour men, and five per cent. on those of in- party made an extended search, but found and was worth some property, though its he was a hotel chef.

Ettienne Deschamps, convicted of the murder of little Juliette Deitsch, in New Orleans last January, has been sentenced to be executed at such time as the Governor may direct.

A double tragedy was enacted at Memphis, Tenn., a few days ago, George Ward, aged twenty-eight, employed as an engineer at the Memphis gas-works, shooting his young wife and then killing himself. A party of Northern capitalists have purchased a tract of land, comprising 30, 000 acres, in Norfolk, Curritack and Camden counties, Va., and will build a town at Moyock on the Norfolk & Southern road, and erect cotton, furniture and mattress factories, saw-mills and brick-

It was variously estimated, a few days since, that there were from 250 to 300 cases of measles in Water Valley, Miss. The doctors were constantly on the go. Only one white person had died from this the disease, but the very large number sick at once gave an immense amount of

A serious accident, resulting in fatal jury to one man and the maiming for fe of two others, occurred on the Alasama Great Southern Railroad in Birmingham, Ala., a few days since, by the derailment of a locomotive and four freight cars. Engineer John D. Gladden was fatally crushed. Fireman Wm. Burrow and Switchman John Conger were frightfully maimed, but will recover. Mrs. Sarah Stevens had been residing at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Griffin, in Louisville, Ky., for several weeks. A few days since Mrs. Griffin was horrified to discover her mother in the kitchen cutting her throat with the butcher-knife. She endeavored to stay the old lady's hand but was too late. The suicide accomplished her purpose, severing the artery and fjugular vein, and dying in a few minutes. Mrs. Stevens was about seventy-three years old, and tem-

The pool rooms at Birmingham, Ala. have been closed by the police. Mrs. Henry Thompson, of Chattanooga Tenu., recently took two teaspoonfuls of oil of tausey through mistake and died in

Ben Elseey pleaded guilty at Birmingam, Ala., of killing Jim Meadows, a section boss, on Red mountain. Thomas Rice was run over and instantly killed by a train of cars on the Chesa-

eake & Ohio railroad at Ricedale, Ky., tew days ago. G. H. Dorsey, a postal clerk on the Greenwood & Jackson (Miss.) railway post-office line, has been arrested for ifling a test registered letter of $10. The evidence against Dorsey is said to be Natchez, Miss., was finally selected as the place and June 24 as the time for the aunual encampment of the National Guard of Mississippi. There was quite a contest between Columbus and Natchez. A gang of men surrounded the house of a farther named Tom Phelton, at Rogersville, Ky., a few nights age, and atempted to take him out. Phelton opened fire on the gang, killing two of them. The others fled. Margaret Hendrick, a full-blooded negress, gave birth to twins in Christian ounty, Ky., a few days since, one o which was perfectly black and the other entirely white. The wonderful freak of nature has created quite a sensation. Mr. P. P. Bailey, of Montgomery, Ala., has just completed an air-ship which he

The monument to the Confederate dead was unvailed in Mount Olivet Cemetery. Nashville, Tenn., a few days since, in the presence of a vast assemblage. Survivors of the war were present in large num men, and have considerable money in bers from all over the State. The floral offerings were magnificent and profuse.

A monument to the dead soldiers of four German companies in the Confeder ate service was dedicated in Bethany Cemetery, Charleston, S. C., a few days ago. The monument was unvailed by ten Another destructive fire occured in mental in sending him to America. He Princeton, Ky., a few days ago, and several stores were consumed before the flames could be gotten under control. say that the Prisoner's Aid Society has This is the third fire that has recently

All are believed to have been incendiary. Dr. W. H. Shoemaker, a talented and eading physician of Birmingham, Ala. has been declared insane, having become a victim of the cocoal e habit. He be came violent, a few days ago, and was sent to the State Insane asylum at Tusca-

The large saw-mill of William Murphy, situated about one mile north of Vicksburg, Miss., on the lake shore, was destroyed by fire, a few days since, with a considerable amount of lumber. The loss will exceed $12,000, with an insurance of about $7,000. The mill was a very large one and doing a large business. There is much excitement in the vicinity

f Coco, a mining region of Monroe Counedy in the bistory of the county, resulting had risen to the same height. A barrel ty, Tenn. Some Colorado miners recenty leased a portion of land where it was ipposed there was gold quartz. They went to work and have struck dust in paying quantities. There is a considerable have been making incendiary speeches far inexplicable. The find is the talk of influx into that section of people from In the Todd County (Ky.) Circuit Court, in session at Elkton, the violators of the prohibition law that is in effect in Todd

> There was great excitement over the when the angels of God hover over that trials. Joe Linebaugh, of Guthrie, was home, do they hear the children lisping fined $2,700, and in default of payment is the name of Jesus? O traveler for eter- time. Anacharsis said that the vine bore awake people, though there were not more in jail at Elkton. There are more cases | nity, your little ones gathered under your | three grapes: the first was pleasure, the against him. George Price, eighteen years old, who death recently. ¡He went out in the woods to fell some trees. Price was missed by which comes the howling of the wolf and quite respectably for awhile, but after liness of life in cities. If it were under-his friends, and they went to look for the sound of loosened ledge and tumbling awhile the cover will fall off and the stood, as a matter of course, that the parhim; when found the trunk of a large tree | avalanche? Blessed is the family altar

A family named Nix, consisting of Nix, his wife and three daughters, were subjected to brutal beatings at Camille, Ala., excitedly, raised the pistol and fired, the Walker, of Kansas, who was yesterday by White Caps, recently. A few nights that Mr. O'Brien refused to give relief to ball striking Folbre in the back of the appointed United States marshal for the ago Henry Butler, an aged veteran of the an Irishman in distress because he was a head. In falling Folbre raised his pistol district of Kansas, succeeds Marshal Confederacy, was treated likewise. and fired two shots. Tom Parham fell Jones, against whom charges of miscou- Anna Adams, a woman living near But-HUGH McKar, deputy division elerk of mortally wounded and died in a short duct in office, during the time of the ler, was beaten with trace chains so se-chopped that down also, and it landed on home, in the eightieth year of her age. Attorney-General Miller said to a She was born in Christian County, and William B. Chenowith, in jail at Louisville, Ky., for forgery, had been trying to mind a few days since when Jailer Bailey in the township of Dayton for twenty-five At New Orleans George Dunn, who shot years, was found dead on Wednesday in and killed James Weir, foreman of

TALMAGE'S SERMON.

Pointed Discourse on "A Poisoned Dinner."

> Strong Drink and Its Companion Evils Brought to Bar-The Blighting Effects of Intemperance on the Home.

nacle, taking for his text:

So they poured out for the men to eat. And mother.

may be prepared to hear what Elisha says, very well it is useless to talk, to preach, recognizing this common-sense principle, which every Christian ought to recognize, sends servants out to get food for these hungry students. They pick up some good, healthful herbs, but they tida, a bitter, poisonous, deathful herb.

They bring all these herbs; they put them into the boiling pot; iquity is an indolent life. the table, one of the hungry students bedents and their professors. Seated Lt reference find this story is precisely as I world back from its follies and its suffer- and do not work? ings, to cry out: "Beware! poison! poi-Beware!"

world. It has gone out through all the of them hang around the City Hall for the the "sample room." What a name to ages, it has mixed up a great caldron of city van bringing criminals from the sta- give one of those places! A "sample whole race is poisoned -poisoned in body, over it-really enjoy the disgrace and of those "sample rooms" the other day, poisoned in mind, poisoned in soul. But suffering of those poor creatures as they dead drunk. I said to myself: "I suppose Christ is the antidote, and where there courts. Where do they get their money? gate of hell. was sin there shall be pardon, and where | That is what you ask. That is what I ask. there was suffering there shall be com- Only four ways of getting money-only indulgent to my family, I am right in fort, and where there was death there four: by inheritance, by earning it, by many respects, I am very generous, and I shall be life. Some time ago, you will begging it, by stealing it; and there are a have too grand and generous a moral natremember, I persuaded you of the importance of being charitable in judgment living not by inheritance, nor by earning me say that the persons who are in the of others. At the same time I said to it, nor by begging it. I do not like to most peril have the largest hearts, the you briefly what this morning I wish to take the responsibility of saying how best education, the brightest prospects. say with great emphasis, that while we they get it. sympathize with the sinner, we must denounce the sin; that while we pity the tion. Why should I toil and wear myself this carbuncled hand of drunkenness torn unfortunate, we must be vehement against transgression. Sin is a jagged or the shop, or the factory? These men | Charles Lamb, answer! Thomas Hood, thing that needs to be roughly handled. have nothing to do. They get along a answer! Sheridan, the English orator, You have no right to garland it with fine great deal better. And that is the answer! Edgar A. Poe, answer! Junius

ot catch a buffalo with a silken lasso. region. The next day a wild beast comes | down the same awful steeps. The numdown from the mountain and carries off | ber of men in our cities who are trying to one of the children. The next day a wild get their living by their wits and by beast comes down from the mountain sleight of hand is all the time increasing. men, be master of your appetites and and carries off another child. Forthwith A New York merchant saw a young all the neighbors band together, and they man, one of his clerks, in half disguise, go out with torch in one hand and gun in going into a very low place of amusefind their hiding place, to light up and must look out for that clerk; he is going ransack the caverns, and to destroy the in bad company and going in bad places; invaders of their houses. So we want I must look out for him." A few mouths now not merely to talk about the sins and passed on, and one morning the merchant follies of the world, we want to go behind entered his store, and this clerk of whom them, back of them. Down into the cay- I have been speaking came up in aserns where they bide we need to go with sumed consternation and said: "Oh, sir, the torch of God's word in one hand and the store has been on fire; I have put out er talks to a younger brother. I put my the sword of God's eternal spirit in the the fire, but there are a great many goods | hand on your shoulder this day and comother to hunt out and slay these iniquities lost; we have had a great crowd of peoin their hiding places. Or, to come back | ple coming and going." Then the merto the figure suggested by my text, we chant took the clerk by the collar and young man, and has sympathy for all want to find what are the caldrons of sin | said: "I have had enough of this; you and death from which the iniquities of can not deceive me; where are those society are dipped out. In the first place, I remark, that un-stantly confessed his villainy.

O, the numbers of people in these great caldrons of great iniquity. Parents, eities who are trying to get their living harsh and cruel on the one hand, or, on not honestly! And they are a mighty the other hand, loose in their government, temptation to the industrious young man wickedly loose in their government, are who can not understand it. While these raising up a generation of vipers. A others have it so easy they have it so home where scolding and fretfulness are hard. Horatius of olden time was told babbling? who hath wounds without dominant is blood relation to the gallows | that h could have just as much ground and the penitentiary! Petulance is a she could plow around with a yoke of serpent that crawls up into the family oxen in one day. He hooked up the oxen mixed wine. Look not upon the nursery sometimes and crushes every to the plow, and he cut a very large circle wine when it is red, when it moveth itnursery sometimes and crushes every to the plow, and he cut a very large circle thing. Why, there are parents who even and plowed until he came to the same make religion disgusting to their chil- point where he started, and all that prop-

of doing their duty. The house is full of mael into the desert to be smitten of the around with your own hard work. "Go thirst and parched of the sand? In the to the ant, thou sluggard; consider her solemn birth hour a voice fell to thee ways and be wise," One of the most from the throne of God, saying: "Take awful caldrons of death to-day is an in-County were on trial recently, several this child and nurse it for me, and I will prominent citizens being under arrest give thee thy wages." At even-time, work. road, or are you taking them out on the was lying across his body, and he was at which the children kneel. Bleased is song the little ones sing at nightfall, when sleep is closing the eyes and looslow. Blessed is that mother whose every waywardness. Oh, it is hard, after you have toiled for a child, and given him every advantage and every kindness, to have him pay you back in ingratitude. and said: "O, my son, my son!" There is many a young man proud of his mother, who would strike into the dust surface there is not some rest for a any man who would insult her, who is at | broken heart. this moment himself, by his evil doing and his bad habits, sharpening a dagger to plunge through that mother's heart. A | in a bank or store. He is going to leave Rev. T. De Witt Talmage delivered the | telegram brought him from afar. He | his country home. That morning they following sermon in the Brooklyn Taber- went bloated and scarred into the room | are up early in the old homestead. The

it came to pass, as they were eating of the pot-tage, that they cried out and said: O, thon man of God, there is death in the pot. And they could not eat thereof.—I Kinga, iv., 40.

Her hair gray; it had turned gray in sorrow. Those eyes had wept floods of the tears away with her apron. "Oh," tears over his wanderings. That still how to take care of myself. Don't he white hand had done him many a kind-Elisha had gone down to lecture to the ness, and had written many a loving instudents in the theological seminary at vitation and good counsel. He had "My son, be a good boy, and write home Gilgal. He found the students very hun- broken her old heart. He came into the ise. It seemed to be a mild form of gry, as students are apt to be. It is very disease, but the very large number seldom the world makes large provision and he sobbed outright: "Mother, whip, and over the hills goes the for those who give themselves to intel- mother!" but those lips that had kissed wagon. Pive years passed on, and a dislectual toil. In order that these students him in infancy and uttered so many kind sipated life has done its work for that words spake not; they were sealed, young man. There is a hearse coming up he first feeds their hunger. He knew Rather than have such a memory come on my soul, I would prefer to have roll to lecture with hungry men. So Elisha, over me the Alps and the Himalayas. But while sometimes there are sons who turn out very badly coming from good al, does he? Is that the fair brow wa homes, I want to tell you for your encouragement it is a great exception. Yet cheek we used to know? It can't be posan unhappy and undisciplined home is sible that is him." The parents stand happen to pick up also some coloquin- the poisonous caldron from which a vast looking at the gash in the forehead from iquity is an indolent life. All the rail my son, my son Absalom; would God f they stir them up, and then a por- trains down the Hudson river yesterday, had died for thee, O Absalom, my son, tion of this food is brought to the stre- all the rail trains on the Pennsylvania my soul" ronte, all the trains on the Long Island road brought to these cities young men to some of his superstitious friends thought gins immediately to eat, and he happens | begin commercial life. Some of them | if they could dissolve a certain number to get hold of some of the coloquintida. are here this morning, I doubt not. Do of pearls in a cup, and then be would the knew it by the taste. He cries out: you know what one of your great tempta- drink them it would cure him of the dis-"Poison, poison! Oh, thou man of God, tions is going to be? It is the example of ease. So they went around and they there is death in the pot!" Consterna- indolent people in our cities. They are gathered up all the beautiful pearls they tion is thrown over the whole group. in all our cities. They dress better than could find, and they dissolved them in a what a fortunate thing it was that this some who are industrious. They have cup and the sick man drank them. Oh, it student so early found the coloquintida access to all places of amusement—plenty in the mixture at the table! You will by our great hotels—the Fifth Avenue, the Drunkenness puts into its cup the pearl have mentioned it. Well, in our day Windsor, the Bronswick, the Stuyvesant, of physical health, the pearl of domestic there are great caldrons of sin and death. the Gilsey House—all our beautiful hotels, Coloquintida of mighty temptation is you find them around there any day—men pearl of Christian hope, the pearl of an pressed into it. Some din it out, and pressed into it. Some dip it out, and who do nothing, never earn any thing, taste, and reject it and live. Others dip it out, taste it, keep on and die. And it is should I work? Why should you work?

I tell you the dramshop is the gate of the business of every minister of religion | Why drudge and toil in bank, and shop | hell. The trouble is they do not put up and every man who wishes well to the human race, and who wants to keep the anvil, when these men get along so well great many different kind of signs now son! Look out for this caldron! Stand Halls of our great cities, toothpick in is called the "saloon," and another is their mouth, waiting for some crumb to called the "hotel," and another is called Sin has done an awful work in our fail from the officebolder's table. Some the "wine cellar," and another is called trouble and suffering and pain, and the tion-houses. They stand there and gloat room!" I saw a man on the steps of one blessed be God that the Gospel of Jesus get out of the city van and go into the that is a sample!" I tell you it is the vast multitude among us who get their ure to be overthrown in that way." Let out in the bank, or the office, or the store, hrases or lustrous rhetoric. You can temptation under which a great many young men fall. They begin to consort A group of emigrants settle in a wild with these men, these idlers, and they go he other to hunt these monsters down, to ment. The merchant said to himself: "I goods you stole?" The young man iniren. They scold them for not loving erty was his. But I have to tell you to-Christ. They have an exasperating way day that just so much financial, just so much moral, just so much spiritual posthe war-whoop of contention, and from session you will have as you compass such a place husband and son go out to with your own industries, and just so much as from the morning of your life to Oh, is there a Hagar leading away Ish- the evening of your life you can plow dolent life. Thank God that you have to

Once more I remark: that the dram shop is a great caldron of iniquity in our robes, are you leading them on the right next was drunkenness, and the next misery. Every saloon above ground or lives in Warren County, Ky., met a sad dangerous winding bridle path, off which under ground is a fountain of infquity. Rev. Edward Everett Hale in the North their inexperienced feet may slip, and up It may have a license and it may go along American Review. Take the deadly lonecolor of the iniquity will be displayed. dead. It seems that he had cut a tree; the cradle in which the Christian mother sasier on such a traffic when it pays such some companionship, in the hours between and that it lodged in another tree; he rocks the Christian child. Blessed is the a large revenue to the Government, and six and midnight would not that underhelps to support your schools and your standing alone relieve very largely this great institutions of mercy." And then I loneliness I should like to see a church ening the hand from the toy on the pil- think of what William E. Gladstone said iow. Blessed is that mother whose every -I think it was the first time he was such an arrangement would offer. I do not beart throb is a prayer for her children's Chancelor of the Exchequer—when men mean that there should be a committee of welfare. engaged in that ruinous traffic came to The world grows old, and the stars will him and said their business ought to have cease to illuminate it, and the waters to | more consideration from the fact that it refresh it, and the mountains to guard it, | paid such a large revenue to the English and the heavens to overspan it, and its Government. Mr. Gladstone said: "Genlong story of sin and shame, and glory tlemen, don't worry yourselves about the folk, Va., was arrested in Baltimore, M. Wilson came running to the scene when been made. The President and the Ata stray bullet struck him piercing his torney-General decided not to allow oldest pioneers of Hopkinsville, Ky., influences that started in the early home people, and we'll have revenue enough sources of much of the wretchedness and go up and down the drawing-room. Ing that the church is home. Nobody can bin of the world.

I know there are exceptions to it some-bright and beautiful sea? The scene represents welcome, companionship and times. From a bright and beautiful changes. Dingy garret. No fire. On a sympathy. It represents "Fogether." That broken chair a sorrowful wife. Last is what it is for." spent over him. He does not understand | "he was the kindest man that aver lived, | George Sand.

how many tears you have shed for his | he was so moble, he was so good! God never made a grander man than he was, but the drink did it, the drink did it." Some day she will press her hands against her temples and cry: "Oh, my As one Sabbath morning a father came to brain, my brain!" or she will go out on the foot of the pulpit as I stepped out of the abutment of the bridge some moonlight night and look down the glassy surface and wonder if under that glassy

A young man, through the intercession of metropolitan friends, gets a place and he stood by the lifeless form of his trunk is in the wagon. Mother says: 'My son, I put a Bible in the trunk; I hope you will read it often." She wipes how to take care of myself. Don't be worried about me." The father says: often; your mother will be anxious to in front of the old homestead. The young men of the neighborhood who have staid on the farm come in and say: "Is it possible? Why, he doesn't look naturused to know? Is that the healthy which the life oozed out, and they lift their I remark that another caldron of in- hands and say: "O my son Absalom,

Lorenzo de Medici was very sick, and on places where strong drink is sold. One Some of them hang around the City is called the "restaurant," and another

"Oh," says some man, "I am kind, I am This sin chooses the fattest lambs for its sacrifice. The brightest garlands are by off the brow of the poet and the orator

Brutus Booth, answer! Oh, come and look over into it while I draw off the cover-hang over it and look down into it, and see the seetiding, boiling, loathsome, smoking, agonizing, blaspheming bell of the drunkard. Young not say thousands?-of young men in this house this morning-young men of fair prospects. Put your trust in the Lord God and all is well. But you will be

Perhaps you may this moment be ad-tempted.

lressed on the first Sabbath of your coming to the great city, and I give you this brotherly counsel. I speak not in a perfunctory way. I speak as an older brothmend you to Jesus Christ, who Himself was a young man and died while yet a young men. Oh, be master, by the grace of God, of your appetites and passions 1 close with a peroration. Ministers and speakers are very apt to close with a peroration, and they generally roll up some grand imagery to express what they have to say. I close with a peroration mightier than was ever uttered by mere human lips. Two quotations. The first is this: "Who hath woe? who hath cause? They that tarry long at self aright in the cup, for at last it biteth like a serpent and stingeth like an adder." This is the other quotation. Make up your mind as to which is the more impressive. I think the last is the mightiers Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth, and let thy heart obser thee in the days of thy judgment." PRACTICAL CHRISTIANITY.

How Christian Churches Can Be Made

youth, and walk thou in the sight of thing own eyes; but know thou that for all these things God will bring thee into stands city_life that a church body of wideof them than there were of the twelve spostles, can meet as no other hody can the very worst difficulties of city life?" asks lors of a church were always open, every "Oh," says some one. "you ought to be evening, to anybody who wanted to have which had 'a light in the window' such as people walting to be 'sociable' with anybody that happened along. But I mean that all the neighborhood should understand that there were warmth, light and a welcome. You might have a class in political economy going on; you might have a class in botany; you might have a class on the second chapter of the Second Epistle to the Theseslantans: you might have a sawly roll on and roll up through all eternity— and a surplus."

and a surplus."

We might in this country—this traffic Islands; you might be occupying yourself triumph, exulting in all the song, or shrinking back into all the darkness. Father, mother, which way are you leading your children? A house took fire and have fewer people in the penitentiary, the owner was very careful to get all his and there would be tens of thousands of he were the veriest waif or stray just furniture out. He got all his books out, men who are now on the road to hell who landed on the pier, might come in there. I and he got all his pictures out, and he got would start on the road to Heaven. But all his valuable papers out, but he forgot the financial ruin is a very small part of would in the first place, solve a good many to ask, until it was too late: "Are my it. This iniquity of which I speak takes of the difficulties of city life much more children safe?" Oh, when the earth shall every thing that is sacred out of the fami- simply than they are solved, even by the melt with fervent heat, and the mountains shall blaze, and the seas shall blaze, and the seas shall blaze, and the earth shall blaze, will your children be safe? Unhappy and undisciplined homes are the happy and undisciplined homes are the lights flash. Music sounds. Gay feet knew anything about that church the feet-